Make new friends...

My goal is that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love, so that they may have the full riches of complete understanding, in order that they may know the mystery of God, namely, Christ, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. (Col 2:2-3)

Fete des Voisins!

This past weekend, we celebrated our neighborhood parties. On Friday night, we celebrated with the crew from our old neighborhood. We were warmly received and it was wonderful to be "where everybody knows our name". On Saturday night, we celebrated with our new neighbors, who had never shared time together as neighbors before. We were expecting about 25, and had 60 show up! Some people invited neighbors from other streets, friends from neighboring towns, etc. We had so much fun getting to know each other... together. People were interested in America, why we live in Perols ("what is a protestant?"), and our English Club. We also invited some friends from the old 'hood to join us to build a bridge in this country of isolation. It was an amazing time allowing us to be the light of Christ, sharing His love, and praying that the essence of our Savior would leave them searching for more.

...But keep the old...

Sheri was told she has a 'delicious' accent...hmmm?

We have a Montpellier friend making a movie about Roman times. He used Maddie, as a stunt double, and her horse, Amber, got top billing as Amber carried the "Roman Soldier" into battle! Wow! Maddie.. Can I have your autograph?

Montpellier has a semi-pro women's softball team! Who knew? Maddie and Ella have joined the team! Way to go, girls! (and yes, the field is ALL dirt!)

Our friend Jake, who serves in Mali, took a 'pit stop' at our place in France before returning to the USA. What a blessing to be able to offer a place of 'respite'. It was so great to spend time with him, pray together, and see him invest in some of the young men at our church. Thanks Jake.. You rock, buddy!

Justin, a family friend, who is living in Spain for the year, came for a visit to pray, rest, and have good 'Jesus' time together.

Visitors

How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!

Friends who used to live here, now living in Paris, stopped by for a great day of catching up and horse-riding.
